As a patient or guardian of a patient of Psychiatric Associates, I acknowledge by signing this document that if I choose to communicate with Psychiatric Associates in any capacity via email there is a risk my private health information could be violated. I accept this risk and agree to hold Psychiatric Associates blameless in the event this would occur. I also acknowledge and am aware of the fact that Psychiatric Associates and its providers will continue to do everything in their power to keep my confidential information safe, including maintaining a secure email server on the side of the practice. Risk of confidential information being unsecured may come on the end of my own email server and I am aware of this and accept it by choosing to communicate via email with my provider. My signature below serves as indefinite consent to this policy unless I revoke it in writing.
